

HOPE rising like the dawn

CSWNA and Gannon University's SOCIAL WORK CONFERENCE 2019<sup>(.58)</sup> Gannon University, Erie, Pennsylvania

CONFERENCE

Friday, March 15, 2019
8 a.m. - 5 p.m.

SPECIAL SERVICE EVENT

Saturday March 16, 2019
8 a.m. - noon

Join us to celebrate Social Work Month on the feast day of the patron saint of social workers, Saint Louise De Marillac as we explore the hopefilled role of the social workers in this era of ostensibly intractable and enduring social problems exacerbated by institutionalized racism.

CONFERENCE REGISTRATION

$20

(No charge for students with valid university identification)
NASW-PA CE hours: $25 members and $35 non-members

All payments are due day of conference.

REGISTER TODAY!

www.gannon.edu/SocialWorkConference
or call 814-871-5378

GUEST SPEAKER Larry Oney

Ordained Catholic Deacon and business leader, Larry Oney is the author of Amazed by God's Grace: Overcoming Racial Divides and founder of Hope & Purpose Ministries. A dynamic international speaker, Deacon Oney leverages humor, joy, and Scripture in his lively, invigorating, knowledgeable, and Spirit-filled presentations.

Also featuring Jenni Bartholomew, Ph.D. and Kathleen Belanger, Ph.D.

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

Submissions of proposals are invited that address social work related to the theme of Isaiah 58 in "setting free the oppressed." Proposals should contribute to the education and growth of social workers and provide practical knowledge and insight into overcoming the obstacles presented by social problems at the intersection of racial disparities with any of the following categories:

- Aging
- Addiction/Recovery
- Child Welfare
- Domestic Violence
- Health/Mental Health
- Policy /Legislation
- Ethics
- Disabilities
- Neighborhood Violence
- Poverty
- Community Building/ Development
- Other social problems

Please submit your proposals to abatta001@gannon.edu no later than November 30, 2018.